Class History

To The Class of 2001,

September of 1996 was the beginning of our new lives. As young eighth graders, with our elementary and middle school years behind us, we were off and running through the halls of Marshfield High. The Class of 2001 would be unlike any other class MHS has ever seen.

Eighth grade was the scary year - when the seniors towered above us, more mature and intimidating in every way. But ninth grade brought about a transformation, and we were officially "The Freshmen." Freshman Fun Night was an "Enchantment Under the Sea" dance, which turned the whole cafe into an ocean of dancing ninth graders. This was the year we could finally be "cool" --well, at least cooler than the eighth graders below us!

As a class, we never shined brighter then when we all came together for the Sophomore Fashion Show. Months of planning under the leadership of Mr. Barrett and hours of decorating and organizing made "Styles of the Stars" spectacular. There were bright lights and cameras, cat walk trips, and nervous smiles, even grinning relatives cheering from their seats. Yet, best of all, was the realization that we succeeded in using our talents, creativity, beauty, and diversity, to further unite us as a class.

Things started to get harder junior year. We started feeling the pressures of school, but as usual, we continued to shine in our individual clubs, sports, and activities. Finding a date for the junior prom became almost as important as those SATs, and for a while we forgot about GPAs, and began to wonder who would be King and Queen. "A Dream Come True" only lasted five hours, but the memories of our prom will stay with us forever.

As this history is being written, the Class of 2001 has only just started senior year. But already we are beginning to make all the important transitions. We're narrowing down the choices, making decisions on what comes next: College? The Army? The workforce? We only have one more year of class events, friendships, and most importantly only one more year of high school to enjoy.

Now we are ending at the beginning. Again, we are off and running as we did five years ago, this time into yet another new experience. Let us never forget the friendships and the joys of fast times at Marshfield High. As a wise man once said, "In this great future, you can't forget your past..."

Sincerely,
Barnabas Lebongo, Vice-President
Adrienne Callaghan, Historian

We, The Class of 2001, dedicate our yearbook to
Mr. Jason Soslow and Mr. Richard Gardner.
hank you for the lessons you have taught us through your friendship, support, motivation, and inspiration.

"Then felt I like some watcher of the skies
When a new planet swims into his ken;
Or like stout Cortez when with eagle eyes
He stared at the Pacific -- and all his men
Looked at each other with a wild surmise--
Silent upon a peak in Darien."
--John Keats

Mr. Gardner takes ooden nickels and he rns them into gold."

"Mr. Soslow encourages us to come up with our own thoughts and express our views as we see them individually."

"We spend our whole lives being cool. On our tombstones, it's going to say 'He didn't have any fun, but he was cool.' "
-- John Stewart

A Farewell From Class Advisor Mr. Barrett

It seems like only yesterday
You entered Marshfield High
You've built so many memories here
Now its time to say goodbye

Remember all the good times
This is no time to be sad
Think of your accomplishments
And the many friends you've had

No more parent conferences
Your future is in your hands
Establish personal goals
And make your own demands

Think of new beginnings
May good fortune be your friend
With the road of life ahead of you
You decide which way to bend

In all your future endeavors
Hold your head in pride
Reflect on lessons learned
Your wisdom is on your side

Recognize the bonds you've formed
To new heights you will soar
You'll have your friends from high school
And you will gain some more

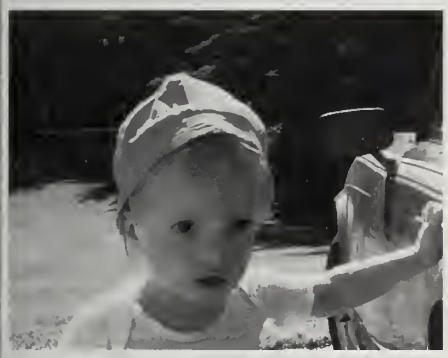
Embrace new changes in your life
Focus on a vision
May patience, hope, and courage
Guide you through this transition

Your future is in front of you
Be all that you can be
Cherish opportunities
Your success is clear to see

It is now time to move on
You journey on your way
I wish you the best of luck
On your graduation day

William Selvitelle Jr.

1982 - 1997



The Coaster

In the metal, rattling car,
Up the seemingly infinite steep hill,
Toward the heavens above
I climb
And look down
Upon the people and sites
Of the enormous park below
And then wonder
What am I doing here?
But I am too late
For as I pondered,
The tiny cab
In which I was strapped
Had reached the pinnacle
And now was rapidly plunging,
Down the unexpected vertical slopes
To our world beneath.
Around the head-jerking twisting bends and turns
I reveal that entrapped, exhilarating emotion.
Through the black abyss
Of the final tunnel,
The runaway train
Screeches to an immediate stop
And I exhale with relief
This ride is at its terminus.

-Bill Selvitelle '97

Despite a pre-season numbers ranking statewide, the 2000 Rams came into the season bearing the dreams of a Superbowl three-peat on their shoulders. This dream would prove difficult to fulfill, though, as a tough league loss to Whitman-Hanson eliminated any chance of a Superbowl title in 2000. However, behind a resilient senior core and a strong cast of underclassmen, the Rams set a Div. 2 record for points scored in a season with 426 points, and defensively allowed a mere 76 points in 11 games. A big early season win over Rockland, 33-0, at the Dawg Pound, marks the first time a Marshfield team has won there in 12 years. Foxboro came to town with a #8 ranking, only to be blown out, 46-21, in the best performance of the season for the Rams. A 28-14 flushing of the Duxbury Dragons on Turkey Day made for a good ending to a very special season, in which Marshfield finished with a #3 ranking. Great job Rams! -John Hollis #15

Enthusiasm and team spirit dominate the MHS first ever Volleyball Team. This season and its 29 players are history in the making. Being a first year team, the skills and rules of the game were new to everyone, but the team quickly learned the way of the sport, although every game was not won, everyone's skills drastically improved. Overall it was a season of learning and fun.

RAMPAGES

Issue Twelve Marshfield High School June 2001

The Rampages Newspaper is a monthly publication distributed to the students during their lunch period free of charge. It is also published in the Marshfield Mariner every month. The staff meets every E Block in a Journalism class to produce the paper. Journalists wrote articles covering Homecoming events, soccer tournaments, football games, dances, drama production reviews, and general editorials about things concerning the student body. Many thanks go out to Ms. Parris for a wonderful year.

THE GAME

BY BILL BURKE

The Rams were extremely impres- in the Homecoming game. They de- ed the Falmouth Clippers, one of the r teams in the Atlantic Coast League, score of 49-0. The Rams improved to n the season, and are now ranked sec- n the state by The Boston Globe. The in first place, BC High, has beaten s by very slim margins. The only fac- eeping the Rams from reaching the top is the fact that they are a Division 2 , whereas BC High is Division 1.

The field was packed as many ni returned home for the game. Many dumbfounded at the display of talent shown on the field. Marshfield High upported excellent teams in the past, ever has there been a team as dominant s one. Sean Morris had a superb game e ground, faking and spinning his way d the Falmouth defense. Jonny Hollis d a smart game at quarterback, execut- e plays soundly and shredding the Clip- opes for an upset.

Hollis scored on the Rams' first from scrimmage, a 7-yard quarterback set up by a Zach Giles fumble recov- One of the highlights of the game was is' beautiful 24-yard pass to Bob McCarthy in the end zone, marking the second touchdown of the first quarter. Morris returned an interception 33 yards for the third tally of the game. Soon after the beginning of the second quarter, Hollis scored again from 25 yards out on a quarterback reverse. For those of you who have no idea of what that is, Hollis pitched the ball to Morris, who handed it back to Jonny. The Clippers didn't even know what hit them. Jeremy Gonsalves scored on a 32-yard run to sink the Clippers, 35-0. Eric Minneart and Joe McDonough each scored on 1-yard runs in the second half.

On the defensive side of the ball, Ben Powell, Keith Kent, and Zach Giles attacked with the red "No Quarter" flag flying high, shutting down Falmouth's running game without mercy. Sean Morris, Eric Tengberg, and Chris Martin collaborated on making the Clippers' aerial attack useless. Brian Noonan was the dominant on special teams.

All in all, the game was a success. The Rams not only defeated a formidable foe to remain at the top of the ACL, but also moved up one spot into second place in the "Boston Globe's Football Top 20". This ranking does not count for anything but bragging rights, and yet these are rights to be yielded to Marshfield alone.

SENIORITIS: IT'S SPREADING

BY OWEN LEONE

With third term officially underway and the days gradually getting longer, an outbreak of senioritis is spreading through the senior class at Marshfield High.

Senioritis is a potentially fatal disease that has been known to cripple the academic life of even the most promising and diligent students. It comes without warning and attacks the motivational fibers in seniors. Senioritis is very contagious, it is most often contracted from friends and symptoms may include: laziness, lethargy, a desire to be in outdoor places that are warm, and a decline in academic performance. Senioritis tends to make its biggest impact when the weather begins to warm up. Students begin to disappear from school and are most often found in a near comatose state lying on the beach. I, personally, am beginning to feel the effects of senioritis on my studies. I am just sick of being in school and would rather be home sleeping at 7:30am than in school doing work. I am infected, and don't know if I can be cured. I am writing this as a warning to both students and faculty. Senioritis is here and it's spreading.

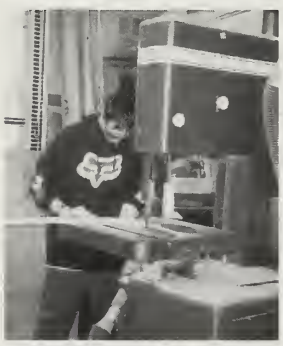
Bank Tellers

Students who take the Teller Training Program work at the stude branch of the Rockland Federal Credit Union. This facility is a real a operating branch of RFCU. The Teller trainees learn to open savings a checking accounts, accept deposits and withdrawals, payments on loar and issue money orders. They are expected to provide efficient a courteous service to all members of RCFU; balance cash transactions dai respond and address inquiries covering member accounts and transc tions; maintain records of open and closed member accounts; sell a cross-sell all services of the credit union; and assist in all related duti

Boatbuilding

The boatbuilding class exposes students to several boatbuilding methods during the construction of wooden boats. Boats are constructed using traditional riveted plank on frame, glued-lap plywood, stitch and glue and ultra-light building techniques. Projects include the construction of skiffs, prams, sailing tenders, canoes, and kayaks. In May, students test their boats on the waters of Green Harbor.



Diversity Club

The membersof the club include Christina Laiosa, Kim Griffis, Kate Shanley, Lisa Torgersen, Tristan Forsythe, Matt Madden, Shana Barrett, Bonnie Evans, Ian Jaffe, Mike Ovaska, Meg Bannon, Liz Read-Katz, Betsy Manson, Liz Moynihan, Kate ???, Katie O'Donnell, and Tanya Turner.

Club Advisor: Mrs. Marples

The Marshfield High School Diversity Club strives to create awareness and ensures and protects the rights of all students and faculty. Through programs both in and outside of the school the club fights bigotry, hatred, and intolerance. The group attends such events as Team Harmony and the Gay Pride march in Boston. The members are constantly in pursuit of equality and welcomes all students to join. We hope to grow and expand as we reach others in our community.

Japanese Culture Club

The Japanese Culture Club is a group of students who are interested in the Japanese lifestyle and wish to expand their knowledge and enlighten the MHS student body to the exotic culture that is Japan. With the guidance of the Health Department's Ms. Ferris who has traveled to and lived in Japan several times, the club has begun an experimental quest for knowledge, which is resulting in a booming club. The club itself functions as a unit, with its planned field trips to Boston, chowing down on Sushi, learning the language (which has three alphabets) or the ultimate goal, going to Japan itself.

Liz,

I'm very proud of you! You've grown to be the lovely young woman I always knew you'd be! You worked hard and weren't afraid to just be yourself.

Keep the happy memories, be good to yourself, don't be afraid to dream big, and make time for a good adventure once in awhile! I learned the last two from you.

No matter what you do, keep writing and sharing your stories; you have a wonderful way with words.

Justin P. Wood

There are so many wonderful memories that we have of you, and I am sure there will be many more to come, as long as you stay on the same skateboard. Some memories include your wonderful sense of humor, your quick wit, your commonsensical outlook and your sincere desire to succeed. In short, you are quite a character! Your school experience from St.Greg's to St. Ann's to Boston Latin Academy and now Marshfield High, has prepared you well for college. Your teachers have given you a strong educational foundation to build on and we will continue to always be here to give you all the love, support and encouragement we can. (not to mention a couple of extra bucks.)
On your first day of school Father Ryan said to you,
"Ah, you're a fine lad", how right he was. I'll be thinking of that morning again as you walk across that stage, but now
I'll be thinking, "Ah, what a fine young man you've become".

For the second consecutive year, the boy's tennis team finsined in second place with a league record of 9 wins and 3 losses. Their overall record was 13-3 which earned the team the fifth seed in the division one south boy's tennis tournament. The team advanced to the semifinals where they were eliminated by Newton North. Ryan McDonald (co-captain) had a tremendous season at the number 1 position as he lost only one match. Freshman Brian Holmquest was nearly as good with only two losses. Chris Smey emerged as a very competitve third single. after opening the season at second doubles. The first doubles team of Bill Burke (co-captain) and foreign exchange student Sebastian Giese were the most pleasant surprise in a very sucessful season. Their 11-4 record at the first doubles position was the best MHS has had in many years. With consecutive vistories over D-Y and Duxbury, their steady improvement bodes well for tournament play. Matt Despier divided his season with partners Chris Smey and his brother Jason and finished his high school varsity career with an 11-3 record. Ryan McDonald, Brian Holmquest, Bill Burke and Sebastian Giese were all named ACL all-stars, and Ryan McDonald was also a Patriot Ledger All-Scholastic honoree.

Led by senior Co-Captains Katherine Ehle and Melissa O'Grady, the 2001 MHS Girls Tennis Team was undefeated with a 15-0 record. This was an all-team effort as many J.V. players won in varsity positions.

In her fourth year at the number one postition, Katherine Ehle (61-4) was undefeated earning ACL League All-Star status and Patriot Ledger Honorable Mention. At number two singles, Sarah Abbott (9-2) received ACL All-Star honorable mention. Annie Hable (9-2) and Melissa O'Grady (3-2) were successful at number three singles.

The First Doubles Team of Lauren Benbenek and Katie Ryan had a tremendous year, earning Patriot Ledger Honorable Mention, ACL All-Star Status, and also going undefeated.

The second doubles team of Erin Stanton and Meghan Duffy had an amazing record of 14-1 and were named ACL League All-Stars.

It was the hard work, enthusiasm, dedication, and commitment that made the 2001 season fun and successful and caused the team to win the ACL Sportmanship Award
